

Facilities in Missouri requesting extension on the compliance date for the Mercury and Air Toxics Standards (MATS) rule.

The following sources have request and been approved a compliance extension for the MATS rule in Missouri: Utility Facility Ameren, Labadie Energy Center, Ameren Meramec Energy Center, Associated Electric Cooperative, New Madrid Associated Electric Cooperative, Thomas Hill Board of Municipal Utilities, Sikeston Power Station City Utilities, James River Power Station City Utilities, John Twitty Energy Center, Kansas City Power and Light Hawthorn, Kansas City Power and Light Lake Road Station, Kansas City Power and Light Montrose Station, and Kansas City Power and Light Sibley Station.